

PETER N. FOWLER is Senior Counsel for Enforcement in the Office of the Administrator for Policy and External Affairs at the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). He joined the USPTO in 1995 as an Attorney-Advisor in the Office of Legislative and International Affairs, working on international and domestic copyright policy matters. From 1995-1998, he served as facilitator of the Conference on Fair Use, and from 1998-2002, he served variously as Executive Assistant to the Assistant Secretary and Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, as Chief of Staff to the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and as Acting Deputy Administrator for External Affairs prior to his present appointment as Senior Counsel. Mr. Fowler has participated in numerous U.S. trade negotiations, including those with Australia, Bahrain, Colombia, Malaysia, Morocco, Oman, Singapore, Thailand, UAE, and Vietnam, as well as the Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement (ACTA) and the current TransPacific Partnership Agreement. He has regularly participated as a technical advisor to the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative on the APEC IP Experts Group and the U.S.-Japan Regulatory Reform and Competition Policy Initiative, now Economic Harmonization Initiative. In addition to his policy role, Mr. Fowler has organized and conducted technical assistance, training and capacity-building in IP policy and enforcement, particularly in the Middle East and Southeast Asia.

From 1985-1995, Mr. Fowler practiced copyright, trademark and entertainment law in San Francisco, California. He is admitted to the practice of law in California and Nevada, and before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. From 1990-1995, he served as an arbitrator for the Bar Association of San Francisco and as a Judge Pro Tem of the Municipal Court of the City and County of San Francisco. From 1988-1995, he taught as an Adjunct Associate Professor of Law at Golden Gate University School of Law, and has also taught at the University of California Hastings College of the Law; University of San Francisco; and Bolivarian Pontifical University in Medellín, Colombia. He serves on the Advisory Board of the Golden Gate University School of Law IP Law Center and the National Advisory Board of the San Francisco Silent Film Festival.

Mr. Fowler has a B.A. in Political Science from John Carroll University; an M.A. in Secondary Education from the University of Alabama; an M.A. in Political Science from Ball State University; and a J.D. from Golden Gate University School of Law.