Professor Hughes teaches intellectual property and international trade at Cardozo Law School in New York. Since November 2009, he has also served as Senior Advisor to the Undersecretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and, in that capacity, often heads US delegations in the negotiation on intellectual property norms.

Educated at Oberlin and Harvard, Professor Hughes practiced international arbitration in Paris and, as a Henry Luce Scholar, clerked for the Lord President of the Supreme Court of Malaysia. He has been a visiting professor at UCLA and DePaul.
