

Vittorio Ragonesi:

Actually judge of the Supreme Court where deals with IP cases .

Specialised in administrative law that has been teaching for several years at the university of Rome .

Author of several books on this subject as : Hand book of administrative law ; Trade law ; Code of trade law ; Public institutions etc.

Member since 1992 and then President in 2003 and 2004 of the group of administrative law of the Council of Europe that issued several recommendations and an Hand book about european administrative law (The administration and you).

Judge for several years at the Tribunal of Rome where specialised in civil law and bankruptcy procedures . Author of an handbook about bankrupt law.

Has been working for seven years at the legislative bureau of Ministry of Justice where followed, also at international level , several issues in the fields of civil and administrative law such as administrative procedures, company law and copyright.

Actually also teaches administrative law at the University Tor Vergata Rome 2 in the master for legal professions.

Legal adviser of Ministry of foreign affaires about intellectual property.

Member of Italian delegation following since 1992 negotiations about copyright at the Standing committee of WIPO

Attended at diplomatic conference of Geneva in 1996 , where were adopted two new treaties (WCT –WPPT) about copyright, at the diplomatic conference of Geneva of 2000 about audiovisual, at the diplomatic conference of Singapore of 2006 that adopted a treaty about Trademarks.

Member since 1992 of Italian delegation who attended at negotiation of directives about copyright in the European Union.

President in 1996 and 2003 of the expert group of the EU about copyright and company law.

Member of the Italian delegation that attended since 1996 at the meetings and negotiations at Trips Council in WTO.

Member of the Italian delegation who attended in 1995-1997 at the negotiation of Multilateral agreement on Investments by OCSE.

Member of the Italian consulting Committee about copyright by the Ministry of culture . In 2004-2006 was also member of the Committee for fighting piracy by the Italian Presidency of council of Ministries.

Member of Italian expert group of law makers about copyright.

Author of several works about copyright