

Prof. Dr. Peter Ruess, LL.M.

Professor Peter Ruess is a full professor of law with International School of Management in Frankfurt, Germany, one of the leading private business schools in Germany. He is also a partner of ARNOLD RUESS, a boutique IP firm in Duesseldorf, Germany. Prior to accepting the position with International School of Management, Professor Ruess has been working for Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer for five years, specializing in intellectual property, namely trademark and unfair competition law, IP litigation, product launches and licensing work. The Dusseldorf Bar Association awarded him the title of “Fachanwalt” (certified specialist) for intellectual property law and he is highly recommended for his area of expertise in the 2010 JUVE handbook on German commercial law firms as well as in the World Trademark Review's worldwide Top 1000 ranking (WTR 1000).

Professor Ruess pursued his law and supplementary business studies at the Universities of Bayreuth (Germany) and Vienna (Austria). He holds a law degree and a German S.J.D. (Dr. jur.) from Bayreuth University and a Masters Degree in Intellectual Property Law from the George Washington University Law School in Washington DC where he was awarded the Thelma Weaver Memorial Award for outstanding contributions to the academic life of the school. Aside from being an LL.M. student, Professor Ruess was a legal extern to the Hon. Randall R. Rader at the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Professor Ruess is a frequent speaker on national and international events. Besides being a regular speaker at Fordham since 2005, he has given presentations in various German venues as well as in Poland, the Netherlands, the UK, Switzerland, Norway, China and (frequently) in the United States. He has authored or co-authored over 60 publications in legal journals and books.
