

MICHAEL S. SHAPIRO

Michael S. Shapiro is Senior Counsel, Office of Policy and External Affairs, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). Specializing in international copyright law and policy, Dr. Shapiro has extensive experience in representing the United States at the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), including its Standing Committee on Copyright and Related Rights (SCCR), the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). Prior to joining the USPTO, Dr. Shapiro served as the General Counsel of the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). He is the co-author of A Museum Guide to Copyright and Trademark (1999) and a contributing author to Copyright and Consequences: Central European and U.S. Perspectives (2003) and to International Intellectual Property: The European Community and Eastern Europe (1992). Dr. Shapiro earned the Ph.D. in American Civilization from Brown University and the JD from the George Washington University Law School.