

Logan Breed's Biography

Logan Breed has handled many of the most cutting-edge antitrust reviews of mergers and acquisitions since 2002, as well as numerous non-merger conduct investigations and antitrust litigation matters. He has particular experience with issues at the intersection of antitrust and intellectual property law. Logan has extensive experience in a wide variety of industries, including computer software and hardware, e-commerce, telecommunications, media and entertainment, consumer products, and defense. He also counsels clients on a wide variety of issues, including trade associations; joint ventures and other strategic alliances between competitors; antitrust compliance; pricing, distribution, and distributor and dealer relations; and consumer protection matters.

In 2015, Global Competition Review named Logan to its "40 Under 40" list and the National Law Journal recognized Logan as a "trailblazer" in the field of antitrust law. In 2013, Washingtonian Magazine named him one of the top antitrust lawyers in DC, and Global Competition Review has twice named Logan a finalist for global antitrust lawyer of the year under 40. Logan is a leader in the antitrust bar, serving in the leadership of the ABA Antitrust Section and the International Bar Association Antitrust Committee, and he speaks regularly on antitrust issues. Logan's published articles have appeared in the Antitrust Law Journal, Antitrust Magazine, MergerMarket, the National Law Journal, the Intellectual Property & Technology Law Journal, various newsletters of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law, and the Virginia Journal of International Law.
