

ANNA CARBONI

Partner, Redd Solicitors LLP, London

Anna has nearly 30 years of experience as an intellectual property lawyer and is qualified as a solicitor, barrister and mediator. Her cases have taken her through the UK IPO, OHIM, the IP Enterprise Court, the High Court, the Court of Appeal, the General Court and the Court of Justice of the European Union and have included urgent ex parte applications, interim injunctions and multi-jurisdictional litigation and complex appeals.

While she enjoys representing clients in litigation, Anna is an enthusiastic advocate and user of mediation in appropriate cases. She is an experienced CEDR-accredited mediator and has extensive additional experience of being a 'neutral' through her roles as Appointed Person on UK trade mark appeals and as a member of Nominet's Expert Review Group for its domain name dispute resolution service.

Anna is an active member of the 'IP Community'. She is on the editorial boards of OUP's Journal of IP Law and Practice and the European Trade Mark Reports. A former member of the Board of INTA, she currently chairs the Unfair Competition Committee of INTA. She has written on numerous IP-related topics, and regularly speaks at conferences.
