

Lord Hoffmann was a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary from 1995 to 2009 and gave the leading opinion in a number of patent cases decided by the House of Lords, then the final court of appeal for the United Kingdom. Since retirement he practises as an international arbitrator and continues to sit as a judge of the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal. He is a Visiting Professor at Oxford and Queen Mary, University of London and gives an annual course of lectures on patent law to undergraduates reading for a law degree at Oxford.