

Brian H. Pandya

Brian Pandya is a partner at Wiley Rein LLP in Washington, DC. His practice focuses primarily on patent litigation and counseling. Brian has represented leading technology and pharmaceutical companies in tribunals across the United States and internationally, including the U.S. Supreme Court, Federal Circuit, Ninth Circuit, federal district courts in Virginia, Texas, Delaware, California, Nevada, Illinois, and Massachusetts, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB), the Court of Federal Claims, in private arbitrations and mediations, and in arbitrations before the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID).

In addition to his litigation practice, Brian advises clients on open-source software licensing and standards, patent licensing, copyright and trademark matters, and patent policy issues, including the recent patent reform legislation. A frequent speaker and writer, Brian was recognized by The Legal 500 US for his work in Supreme Court and appellate matters, noting that he is “widely esteemed” (2015). Brian has been quoted in publications such as Forbes, Bloomberg BNA, Metropolitan Corporate Counsel, and the San Francisco Chronicle and has spoken to legal and business groups in the United States, Europe, and India.

In 2016, Brian was named a Fellow of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD). Brian also maintains an active pro bono practice, where his experiences include representing disabled military veterans and assisting students seeking political asylum.

Before joining Wiley Rein, Brian clerked for the Honorable Leonard Davis, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. He received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School, where he was an articles editor for the Michigan Telecommunications and Technology Law Review, and his B.S. in mechanical engineering, with honors and high distinction, from The Pennsylvania State University, where he was the recipient of the Ralph Dorn Hetzel Memorial Award.

Partner

202.719.7457

bpandya@wileyrein.com

Practice Areas

Intellectual Property

Litigation

Education

J.D., cum laude, University of Michigan Law School

B.S., with honors and high distinction, The Pennsylvania State University

Clerkships

Law Clerk for the Honorable Leonard Davis, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas

Awards and Honors

DC "Rising Star" for Intellectual Property Litigation by Super Lawyers magazine (2014-2015)

"Recommended Lawyer" by the Legal 500 US in Supreme Court and Appellate Law (2015)

Pro Bono Advocacy Award, Federal Circuit Bar Association (2011, 2012)