

John B. Pegram

John B. Pegram is a Senior Principal based in the New York City office of Fish & Richardson P.C., a multi-office law firm concentrating in IP and technology law. He received his undergraduate degree from Columbia University and his law degree from New York University. He is admitted to practice in the courts of New York State and in a number of U.S. federal courts, including the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court. He also is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office.

John has been engaged in patent, trademark and copyright litigation, licensing, opinion and counseling matters of all types for nearly 50 years. He has been active in bar associations, and as a frequent author and lecturer on IP and litigation procedure topics. He is a past President of NYIPLA, a past member of AIPLA's Board of Directors, and a member and chair of several committees of AIPLA and other IP associations. Currently, he is an AIPLA delegate to the US Bar – EPO Liaison Council, and an active member of the AIPLA IP Practice in Europe Committee and the AIPPI Standing Committee on the Unitary Patent Court.