

Richard H. Reimer -- Senior Vice President, Business and Legal Affairs
American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers

---

Mr. Reimer joined the Society's Office of General Counsel as a staff attorney in 1971, and has served as Senior Attorney, Assistant General Counsel, Deputy General Counsel, Director of Legal Affairs and Managing Attorney, and Vice-President, Legal Services. He assumed his current position of Senior Vice President in 2004 and is responsible for all aspects of litigation involving ASCAP. He has had a major role in ASCAP's antitrust litigation and fee determination proceedings, federal and state lobbying activities, the conduct of infringement litigation on behalf of ASCAP's members, and grievance proceedings brought before the ASCAP Board of Review. Mr. Reimer advises ASCAP's members, its licensing staff, and others on a wide range of issues involving performing rights. He has also argued appeals of ASCAP's infringement cases in the federal circuit courts, lectured at law schools, and participated in government, bar association and CLE Intellectual Property seminars throughout the United States. Mr. Reimer is a graduate of New York University School of Law, and a member of the Institute of Judicial Administration in New York and the Copyright Society of the U.S.A.
